

2007 Grant Award Recipients

(6 grants totaling $7,763)

Ashland High School

Awarded To:	Leah Sumner
Title	Holga Cameras
Summary:	This grant funded cameras that make learning apertures, shutter speeds, film speeds, chemistry, lighting and timing easier. They're ideal for novices and students with special needs before learning the more complex aspects of 35mm SLR photography.
Amount Awarded:	$770

Ashland Middle School

Awarded To:	Nanci Farquharson and Scott Soderberg
Title	Travel to a European Country Project
Summary:	This grant purchased books and USB drives for students to study and share findings of our changing world, one country at a time. They'll learn research skills plus written, oral and multimedia presentation techniques.
Amount Awarded:	$1,511

David Mindess School

Awarded To:	Amy Westerman
Title	Hands-on Fun!
Summary:	The Occupational Therapy department for Ashland Public Schools used this grant to purchase materials for a “library” of fine motor activities for kindergarten and first grade students.
Amount Awarded:	$1,157

Awarded To:	Teresa McCarrick and Katie Bach
Title	Multicultural Folkmoot Costumes
Summary:	An expansion of the Multicultural Sports/Dance Curriculum grant awarded in 2005, this new grant purchased supplies for the children to make folkmoot costumes, and integrate multicultural music and folk songs into the festival through the music department.
Amount Awarded:	$1,694

Awarded To:	Lori Osowski
Title	Books + Math = New Successes!
Summary:	This grant purchased library books that weave mathematical ideas into engaging stories, thus helping to dispel the myth that math is dry, unimaginative, and inaccessible.
Amount Awarded:	$1,694

Awarded To:	Lori Osowski
Title	Learning the Language of Music Through Technology
Summary:	Through this grant, the music teacher uses the computer lab to impart music-reading concepts and track individual student progress with the exciting Music Ace software.
Amount Awarded:	$937
